FROM THE EDITOR

At the time of writing these lines, I am getting ready for a short holiday in Switzerland. In this I am hardly unique since a great many of you, I suppose, are also eager to go and enjoy a few weeks of freedom, sunshine (one hopes) and a change from the routine of everyday working life.

By the time this reaches you, most of us will have left our holidays behind and will be living on memories until next year.

I wonder whether some of you would feel inclined to share your holiday experiences with the rest of us. Did something particularly amazing, funny or outrageous happen to you on holiday?

Please, do write in. I am certain that your account will be read with great interest by us all.

The next issue of the Swiss Observer will contain a vade-mecum of comprehensive information on rights and obligations of the Swiss abroad, as legislation concerning the Swiss abroad in particular is now complete.

We think that it might be very useful for our readers to keep the special issues of the Swiss Observer for reference purposes.
