Dear business associates, and other

customers, suppliers friends.

We are pleased to inform you of some important innovations in our summer timetable for the Middle East. Since April 1st we are offering even more non-stop DC-10-30 flights from Switzerland.

Which should provide further opportunities for your business activities in the region and our mutual relationship.

Swissair flies twice a week to Abu Dhabi; three times to Baghdad (now twice by DC-10); seven times to Beirut (with Middle East Airlines); five times to Cairo (now all non-stop); twice to Damascus; three times to Dhahran; twice to Dubai; three times to Jeddah (now twice by DC-10); twice to Kuwait (now once by DC-10); five times to Teheran; and daily to Tel Aviv.

Allow us then to draw your particular attention to the fact that our DC-10-30s, operating on many of these flights, have only 8 instead of 9 seats abreast. So there is more room rather than more seats. And our cabin staff can therefore give you more personal attention.

We look forward to welcoming you on board soon, wish you a good flight and remain
