COLOUR OR BLACK-AND-WHITE?

You will all have noticed the return to full black and white illustrations in this issue of "Swiss Express" I am sure this will disappoint most members. Unfortunately, colour costs. The Committee will be considering the possibility of producing colour Swiss Expresses regularly, and possibly permanently, at the next Committee meeting in October and it will probably take up a lot of the meeting! Purely personally, I would be delighted to have colour in every issue, but it is inevitable that this would mean an increase in the annual subscription. Would you like colour in every issue? What increase in the subscription would you be prepared to accept? Please think about this and let a committee member know your thoughts we need to know them because this is your Society, it is your Swiss Express. Why not email me at srschairman@email.com?

Paul Russenberger (Chairman)
