Ivan Rodrigues from the STC writes:

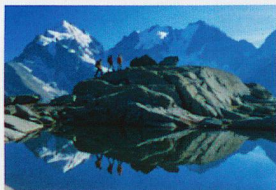

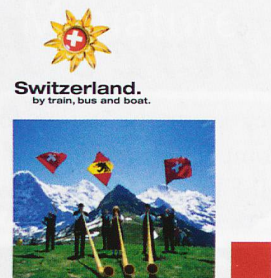

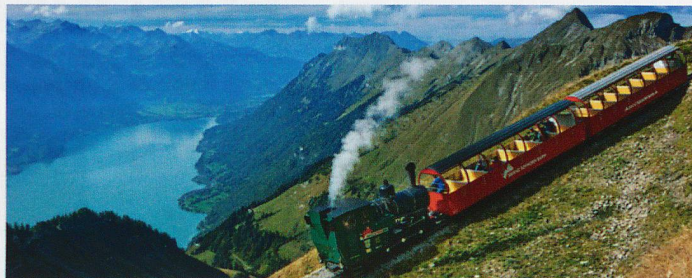

It was a real pleasure for Diana and me to meet so many familiar faces at the AGM in Derby and to hear your recent experiences with your Swiss Travel Pass. It is also reassuring to know that many of you have welcomed STC's expertise when arranging your holidays, particularly when travelling by rail from the UK to Switzerland. With the internet becoming more sophisticated as an online booking channel, arranging European rail tickets is still not very easy. STC has access to all the best fares for the various European rail systems and continues to be the leading Swiss specialist.

Planning to visit the Jungfrauoch? With many groups from around the world travelling there too, trains to the Jungfrauoch can often be extremely busy and overcrowded. You can now reserve your seats for peace of mind between Kleine Scheidegg to the Top of Europe, for 5 CHF each way subject to availability. Contact STC if you would like us to arrange your next trip.

In the March edition we mentioned the Ticino Ticket which is a local mobility ticket for the region and is new for 2017. This year Luzern Tourism is also offering a mobility ticket valid for the whole of your stay. This ticket entitles you to free use of buses and trains (2nd class) in "tariff zone 10". Boats are excluded from the offer. Since you receive the ticket only on arrival at your accommodation, the hotel reservation document (printed or digital) may be presented to the ticket inspector when first making your way to the hotel. If you are planning to stay in Luzern and would like to receive the map to know how far you can travel for free, please drop us an email at sales@stc.co.uk

Finally if you have not visited our website recently www.stc.co.uk, why not take a look. We re-launched it in April and we hope that images and attractive offers will inspire many of you to book your next holiday to Switzerland. We look forward to assisting you with your travel plans.
